

July 4, 2023

Mr. Allison MacEwen
Director, Regulatory Services
Prince Edward Island Regulatory & Appeals Commission
P.O. Box 577, Charlottetown, PE C1A 7L1

Via email: petromarginreview@irac.pe.ca

Dear Mr. MacEwen:

IN THE MATTER OF THE PETROLEUM PRODUCTS ACT

- and -

IN THE MATTER OF A REVIEW by the Commission under s. 27: Powers of Commission of the Petroleum Products Act with respect to the pricing model and margins for petroleum products including the Clean Fuel Regulations

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PARTICIPATE

1. The Convenience Industry Council of Canada (CICC) seeks leave to intervene in this proceeding as an Added Party Intervener.
2. The CICC is a national, not-for-profit trade organization representing retail owners, operators and suppliers in Canada's convenience channel. The convenience store industry is the largest retailer of motor fuels in Prince Edward Island in terms of both volume and number of retail sites.
3. The CICC submits that this proceeding addresses issues and touches upon matters directly affecting its membership, and therefore it has interests in this proceeding, including:
  - a. PEI petroleum markets and the benchmark price for gasoline and diesel;
  - b. Motor fuels retail margins; and
  - c. The incorporation of Clean Fuel Regulations (CFR) into the IRAC motor fuel pricing model.
4. Over a number of years, the CICC and the Atlantic Canada division of the CICC, formerly the Atlantic Convenience Stores Association, have been recognized by regulatory authorities in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland and Labrador as an intervener in public and paper hearings related to motor fuels. The CICC has also made commentary submissions to IRAC with respect to retail motor fuels margin reviews.

5. The CICC seeks leave to attend, be heard, make representations, or otherwise participate in the public process relating to this review.
6. The CICC asks that all notices circulated in this proceeding be provided to the following individuals:

David Knight
Senior Consultant
Convenience Industry Council of Canada
PO Box 1531, Charlottetown, PE C1A 7N3
dknight@convenienceindustry.ca
902.628.4459

Mike Hammoud
Vice President, Atlantic Canada
Convenience Industry Council of Canada
PO Box 1302, Station K, Toronto, ON M4P 3J4
mhammoud@convenienceindustry.ca
902.880.9733

Respectfully submitted at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, this 4th day of July 2023.

Sincerely,

David Knight
Senior Consultant

