Dear Ms. Francis:

RE: Comprehensive Review of the General Rules and Regulations

On April 23, 2023, the Prince Edward Island Regulatory and Appeals Commission (the "Commission") issued Order UE23-04 with respect to Maritime Electric Company, Limited's ("MECL") General Rate Application. Order UE23-04 required MECL to, among other things, undertake a comprehensive review of the General Rules and Regulations. According to the Order, the comprehensive review was to be filed with the Commission on or before January 31, 2025.

On January 15, 2025, the Commission received a request from MECL seeking to extend the time to file the comprehensive review of the General Rules and Regulations from January 31, 2025 to March 31, 2025.

In support of its request for an extension, MECL advised that it has engaged a third-party expert to assist with the jurisdictional review of similar rules used by other Canadian utilities and how they compare or contrast from the Company's General Rules and Regulations. The Company's expert has substantially completed their review.

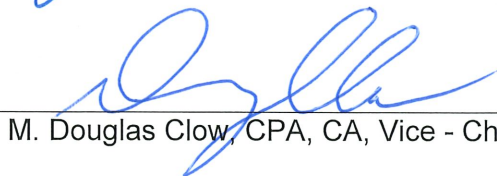

MECL has also assembled a team of experts from the organization to perform an internal review of the General Rules and Regulations. MECL requests additional time to incorporate the findings from both the internal and external reviews into a set of proposed updates to the General Rules and Regulations.

The Commission is satisfied that the request for an extension made by MECL is, in the circumstances, reasonable. The Commission grants the requested extension until March 31, 2025 to allow MECL and its third-party expert time to complete the required analysis.

BY THE COMMISSION:
