I write to you today as a small business owner of whom was born & raised in the town of Borden-Carleton.

I went to school with the Howatt's & the Ceretti's. Their parents were very gracious & giving members of the community and they have passed that on to the next generations that now own & operate those businesses. Both families have donated to every local fundraiser, benefit for someone in need, local food bank, local school trips, church collections etc. They work hard & make their living at these stores.

The community of Borden-Carleton stands behind Howatt's Shell & Ceretti's Grocery - there is no need for DP Murphy to open another gas station in Borden-Carleton. Please help us keep our small businesses alive.

Sincerely, Nicole & Derek Sellar
